Commissioner for Patents

The reply filed on 1/8/08 is not fully responsive to the prior Office Action because of the following omission(s) or matter(s) (See 37 CFR 1.111).

Applicant has amended numerous claims and added a number of new claims without indicating where the support for the amendments is located within the disclosure. "Applicant should... specifically point out the support for any amendments made to the disclosure" (See MPEP 714.02).

The failure to provide support for the claim amendments limits the Examiner's ability to prepare a new Office action in regards to determining if there is adequate written description of the claimed invention. "There is a strong presumption that an adequate written description of the claimed invention is present in the specification as filed, Wertheim, 541 F.2d at 262, 191 USPQ at 96; however, with respect to newly added or amended claims, applicant should show support in the original disclosure for the new or amended claims" (See MPEP 2162, II, A).

Therefore, the Applicant should specifically point out where in the original disclosure (drawings, abstract, specification, and/or original claims) support exists for the amendments made to the claims. This is especially true of independent claims 22 and 30, which have been newly added, but no support in the specification has been pointed out by Applicant.

Furthermore, newly added claims should be argued to be patentable over the previously applied prior art. Applicant has adequately equated the arguments applied to claims 1 and 9 to the newly added claim 22, but makes no arguments for newly added independent claim 30. "The reply must present arguments pointing out the specific distinctions believed to render the claims, including any newly presented claims, patentable over any applied references" [See 37 CFR 1.111, (b)].

So in summary, support in the original disclosure should be pointed out by the Applicant for the amendments to the claims and, additionally, the Applicant should also argue how the newly added independent claim 30 overcomes the prior art.

Since the above-mentioned reply appears to be bona fide, applicant is given ONE (1) MONTH or THIRTY (30) DAYS from the mailing date of this notice, whichever is longer, within which to supply the omission or correction in order to avoid abandonment. EXTENSIONS OF THIS TIME PERIOD MAY BE GRANTED UNDER 37 CFR 1.136(a).
